

Please note that a plenteous variety of spelling exists in the original documents. When quoting from them, I have carried the original spelling, but in commentary and the index I have standardized many names so that individuals may more easily be seen in company with others who may be related. The author thanks all those who have patiently answered numerous questions, and acknowledges that all remaining mistakes are her imperfections. Photos, additions and corrections wanted and welcome. I would particularly like to see records of other churches from this area and time.
